  - ii. A copy of the original licence with all the conditions, just inside the principal entrance so persons entering can read it.
  - iii. A sign in a prominent place identifying the duty manager.

Reasons

1. This is an application by Yum Thai Limited for the renewal of an on-licence in respect of the premises situated at 81 Maniapoto Street, Ōtorohanga and known as Jasmines Thai Restaurant. This restaurant has been operating successfully for the past 12 months, this is the first renewal.
2. The application was advertised and there have been no objections by members of the public. The Liquor Licensing Inspector, Police and the Medical Officer of Health have provided reports and do not oppose the application. Accordingly, the matter is decided on the papers (section 134).
3. The object of the Act is to ensure that the sale and supply of alcohol is undertaken safely and responsibly, and the harm caused by excessive or inappropriate consumption of alcohol is minimised (section 4).
4. In deciding whether to renew an on-licence the licensing committee must have regard to sections 105 and 131 of the Act. Therefore, this committee must consider the following questions within the framework of the purpose and object of the Act:
  - a) Is the applicant suitable?
  - b) Are the days and hours during which the applicant proposes to sell alcohol reasonable? Is the design and layout of the premises suitable?
  - c) Does the applicant propose to engage in the sale of goods or provision of services other than those directly relating to the sale of alcohol, low-alcohol refreshments, non-alcoholic refreshments and food?
  - d) Does the applicant have appropriate systems, staff and training to comply with the law?

- e) Have the police, inspector and medical officer of health raised any relevant considerations?
- f) Will the amenity and good order of the locality be increased by more than a minor extent by the effects of a refusal to renew the licence?
- g) Has the applicant sold, displayed, advertised or promoted alcohol in a responsible manner?
- h) Does the application comply with the Ōtorohanga District Local Alcohol Policy?

Should the licence be renewed?

- 5. The licensing committee is satisfied that Yum Thai Limited is a suitable applicant to hold an on-licence. The company has demonstrated compliance with the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012. The company has an appropriate Host Responsibility Policy and staff training programme. There are 2 certificated duty managers who are responsible for ensuring compliance with the Act.
- 6. Yum Thai Limited proposes to continue operating as a restaurant from 11.00am to 12midnight, Monday to Sunday. The licensing committee is satisfied that these are appropriate hours of operation.
- 7. The Licensing Inspector reports that the application does comply with the Ōtorohanga District Local Alcohol Policy.
- 8. The licensing committee is satisfied that suitable measures will be taken to ensure that alcohol is sold and supplied responsibly, and that harm caused by inappropriate or excessive consumption of alcohol is minimised.
- 9. The licensing committee is satisfied that the premises has a suitable design and layout to meet the requirements of the Act. The restaurant has a typical open layout with customer seating and a bar servery area. All dining will take place indoor. There are no bar stools as all drinks will be table service. It is well appointed and able to be monitored effectively by the staff of the premises.
- 10. The licensing committee is satisfied that the renewal of the on-licence will not reduce the amenity and good order of the locality by more than a minor extent. There have been no reports of any nuisance, vandalism or noise problems associated with this premises in the past 12 months.
- 11. The licensing committee is satisfied that alcohol is sold, displayed and promoted in a responsible manner and in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

Conclusion

- 12. Therefore, the application for the renewal of the on-licence is granted.
